This week's preacher: Never Gunje

LESSON SUMMARY

Words of Wisdom

Memory Text: "Most men will proclaim each his own goodness, but who can find a faithful man?"
(Proverbs 20:6, NKJV) "

Parents should be models of truthfulness, for this is the daily lesson to be impressed upon the heart of the child. Undeviating principle should govern parents in all the affairs of life, especially in the education and training of their children. Parents, never prevaricate; never tell an untruth in precept or in example. If you want your child to be truthful, be truthful yourself."—Ellen G. White, Child Guidance, p. 151. "Many fathers and mothers seem to think that if they feed and clothe their little ones, and educate them according to the standard of the world, they have done their duty. They are too much occupied with business or pleasure to make the education of their children the study of their lives. They do not seek to train them so that they will employ their talents for the honour of their Redeemer. Solomon did not say, 'Tell a child the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it.' But, 'Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.'

Scripture of the week: Ephesians 6:2

Children obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honour your father and mother' – which is the first commandment with a promise, 'that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy a long life on earth'
